The Hong Kong Electro-plating Merchants Association was founded in December 1948. The Association is aiming for providing benefits to the electro-plating industry, facilitating industry networking, protecting the legal rights and interests, promoting market development, enhancing surface treatment technology and cultivating talented people in the industry.

The Association's functions include introducing the latest electro-plating technology, pollution and sewage treatment solution through industrial exhibition, technical seminars, workshops and publications. By organising overseas visit tours, we facilitate the technological exchange with the industrial bodies worldwide. In addition to the active collaboration with the mainland and international electro-plating industrialists, regular meetings provide opportunities for technological and marketing exchange.

SERFILCO, the leading manufacturer of specialist filtration and pumping equipment to the Metal Finishing Industry. The biggest range of all, to match individual requirements. Flow rates of the Mini Labmaster 0.5m³/h up to the MegaFlo rate of 65m³/h unrivalled for performance. Serductor® Air-Free agitation, Serfilco have developed this approach over the last 5 or more years and gained recognition for this innovation now being PROVEN technology.

Another new development is the more recent introduction of PREMIER Washed, diamond wound filter cartridges. These can be re-used many times, especially if acid leached to remove iron hydroxide sludge. In-situ acid washing is particularly effective and virtually eliminates down time. Similarly, POLYSERF pleated are ideal for recycling and can become an integral part of a waste minimisation programme.

The Singapore Metal Finishing Society was founded in November 1981 with the mission to promote the development of the local electroplating industry. It was renamed the Singapore Surface Finishing Society (SSFS) in 1992. In 1994, we included PCB manufacturing as an integral part of our activity and admitted PCB manufacturers as members. Today, the Society represents the interests of some 100 companies in the surface finishing community. It counts contract platers, surface finishers, suppliers of chemicals/equipment/technology, academics and PCB manufacturers as its members. To meet members' various needs, the Society organizes a wide spectrum of activities every year. These range from specialised courses, conferences, seminars and dialogues with government agencies to overseas business missions. The Society is currently a member of the International Union of Surface Finishing (IUSF) and a Sustaining Member of the Institute of Metal Finishing, UK. The Society has a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Association of Electronics Industries in Singapore (AEIS) and is an Association Member of the Singapore Manufacturers Federation (SMa). It changed its name in 2009 to Singapore Surface Engineering Association (SSEA).
